

Essay Outline

Lucas Vas

November 12, 2023

Thesis Statement: The lack of explainability within AI models, with a focus on large language models that have been used to shape our decisions, raises serious ethical concerns due to the lack of fairness, accountability, and transparency, which leads to a lack of trust and holds back fully responsible deployment of AI into our everyday lives.

I. Introduction

II. Violation of Transparency

- A. Definition of transparency in the context of AI,
- B. Explanation of how transparency is important in everyday life.
- C. Touch upon AI's usage of our personal information?

III. Violation of Accountability

- A. Definition of accountability in the context of AI.
- B. Explanation of how AI's unexplainability hinders trust.
- C. Examples of scenarios where the lack of accountability has led to ethical challenges.

IV. Violation of Fairness

- A. Definition of fairness in the context of AI.
- B. Explanation of how inadequate explainability can lead to bias and discrimination.
- C. Real world examples of how AI systems have demonstrated biased outcomes.

V. Conclusion